BRICKER NAMED CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Attorney General Talked to By Leaders from at Least Seven States

CLEVELAND, June 10.—(UP)—John W. Bricker, Ohio Attorney general and Republican candidate for governor, today was suggested as a candidate for the vice presidency. Republican leaders from at least seven states have approached Bricker, urging that he enter the vice presidential race, it was learned. Bricker has given no serious thought to such suggestions, associates said. He has been urged by his advisors to remain out of the national race this year.

CLEVELAND, June 10.—(UP)—A bloc of New York delegates revived their fight today to win the Republican nomination for vice president for Young "Teddy" Roosevelt. The movement assumed form again as delegation leaders maintained an "open mind" on their vice presidential choice. Roosevelt flew back to New York last night to attend to business affairs.

OHIO POLITICAL LEADER RESIGNS, RAPS GOVERNOR

AKRON, June 16.—(UP)—Con Mulcahy, Summit-co Democratic leader for 25 years, resigned as chairman of the county executive committee today because he opposed re-election of Governor Martin L. Davey. Mulcahy charged Gov. Davey with "incompetence and betrayal of local party members. "This decision is prompted entirely by the fact that I cannot support the governor for re-election," Mulcahy said, in announcing he would not be a candidate for another term. "He has proved himself incompetent and has betrayed the confidence and trust of the Democrats of Summit-co."

TAFT MENTIONED AGAIN FOR VICE PRESIDENCY

CLEVELAND, June 10.—(UP)—The name of Robert A. Taft, Ohio favorite son candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, once more was receiving favorable comment as a vice presidential candidate among GOP convention delegates today. Taft's overnight rise in favor was due to sentiment developing within the Landon forces. Landonites, who held off serious discussion of a vice presidential candidate until after Senator Frederick Steiwer's keynote address last night, were looking around for other timber for the vice presidency. Many were unimpressed by Steiwer.

MAN SERIOUSLY INJURED AS TIRE ON AUTO BURSTS

Harry Davis of Portsmouth Paralyzed from Hips Down as Back is Hurt

FOUR OTHERS LACERATED

Automobile Turns Over Into Ditch, Catches Fire Near Bell's Siding

Five men were injured, one seriously, at 5:15 p. m. Tuesday on Route 23, four miles north of Circleville, in an auto accident caused by a blow-out. The bursting tire caused a wheel to break. The car swerved off the highway into a ditch, overturned and caught fire. Harry Davis, 37, Cooper hotel, Portsmouth, is in a serious condition in Berger hospital with severe head lacerations and a spinal injury.

TWO OTHERS CRITICAL
Two other men, victims of accidents, are in critical condition in Berger hospital. They are Thomas L. Graham of Darby-twp and Sidney Postle of Columbus. Both have fractured skulls. Both have a slight chance to recover.

He suffered a number of cuts on the face and his right ear was severed from his head by a deep laceration. His legs are paralyzed by the spinal injury.

Four Others Injured

Others in the car were Harry W. Ackley, 38, 483 E. Hudson-st, Columbus, driver of the car, lacerated right hand; Dale Calhoun, 18, of 1244 Front-st, Portsmouth, cuts on the head, right hand and knees; Albert Cook, 26, 1401 High-st, Portsmouth, and J. H. Ryan, E. Bean-st, Washington, Pa., bruises. All but Davis were treated by Dr. D. V. Court-right and discharged. Ackley, Ryan and Cook crawled out of the car windows and pulled out Calhoun and Davis. The car was resting on its top. The fire started in the battery box. The auto was a total wreck.

Aided by Motorists

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Valentine, Circleville Rt. 3, took Davis to the hospital and passing motorists took the other four in for treatment. The accident occurred north of Bell's Siding. Ackley told Deputy Sheriff Miller Fissell he was driving about 45 miles per hour when the tire burst. The car burned in a field on the farm of Fred Cook.

In Asylum Break

NATIONAL guardsmen armed with machine guns hunted Lawrence Devol, above, and 12 other criminally-insane convicts still at large following a break from the state asylum at St. Peter, Minn. Sixteen escaped the asylum by slugging and locking up two guards. Devol, alias George Barton, once was a member of the Barker-Karpis mob and had been given a life sentence for a bank holdup in 1932.

SNELL INVITES MAYOR STUDIES NEW DEAL FOES DOG QUARANTINE

Leaders of Both Parties Needed, He Declares

PUBLIC HALL, Cleveland, June 10.—(UP)—Rep. Bertrand H. Snell, house minority leader, became chairman of the Republican national convention today and invited anti-New Deal Democrats to join a crusade to save constitutional liberties. He charged the President with harboring a "personal affection for a government-dictated collectivist order" and publicly offered to reward dissident Democrats with posts in "executive positions" should the Republicans win the November elections.

"The people are weary of too much partisanship," Snell said. "When the victory is won we shall give America a government high above the plane of party politics."

"We shall need in executive positions the services of constitutional Democrats and Republicans alike," Snell read from the Democratic record—the 1932 party platform and addresses of President Roosevelt as a candidate. And to each pledge he presented the Republican charge of bad faith and broken promises.

BREMEN BANKERS NAME TWO AS ARMED BANDITS

COLUMBUS, June 10.—(UP)—Officials of the Bremen bank, Fairfield-co, today tentatively identified two suspects held by Columbus police as the two nervous bandits who attempted to hold up the bank last Thursday and fled empty-handed after firing one shot. The men gave their names as Nuncio Destro, 23, and Anthony Gayton, 25, both of Akron. Arrested in Akron yesterday, they were brought here with another suspect, Saul Ackerman, 26, for questioning in connection with the $33 robbery of a local billiard room. The billiard room proprietor identified Ackerman and Gayton as the two who slugged him. The bank officials picked Destro and Gayton from a line-up of eight men, police said.

SUICIDE FAILS THRICE

TORONTO, Ont. (UP)—George McCrea tried to commit suicide three times in a jail cell here and failed each time. First he tried to hang himself with his tie, then with his shirt and finally with his jacket, but each time a guard cut him down in time.

Speech May Be His Last

Convention and Guests to Hear Address About 8:15 O'clock

CLEVELAND, June 10.—(UP)—Former President Herbert Hoover comes to this convention city today to make his valedictory speech to the Republican party, tonight he will address some 20,000 persons, comprising the national convention and its guests, in public hall. His voice will go out on the air waves, just a few minutes after the family radios cease to give forth the voice of his political foe—President Roosevelt. Unless a miracle occurs, it will be Mr. Hoover's last major appearance as titular leader of his party. That miracle would be something that would upset the drive of Gov. Alf M. Landon for the presidential nomination in his favor. If nominated Thursday or Friday, Landon will succeed him at the helm.

Ballyhoo Great

Nevertheless, efforts were being made to excite the convention city over his arrival. Every ten minutes all of yesterday and until midnight last night, loud speakers of a public address system, blared into the street: "Attention Herbert Hoover arrives at Union terminal tomorrow morning. Be on hand to welcome your former president!" The announcements were ostensibly sponsored by a local Republican club, Lawrence Richey, the former president's secretary and political adviser, has been on hand for several days.

Mr. Hoover came here from Chicago where yesterday he put the finishing touches to his speech, which may be one of the greatest of his career. Four years, after his defeat by President Roosevelt, it was understood that he felt he had been defeated because the country had been aroused emotionally without understanding what he regarded as the true issues. It was believed then that he waited only for 1936, feeling his party would give him his banner to carry again.

Tonight Mr. Hoover addresses the convention, but another man already has his hands on the banner pole. Mr. Hoover's address was scheduled soon after Mr. Roosevelt's address at Little Rock, Ark., tonight.

TWO MORE INSANE CONVICTS FOUND; FIVE STILL FREE

ST. PETER, Minn., June 10.—(UP)—Wilbur Jorissen and Adolph Walworth were captured near Cologne, Minn., today, leaving only five fugitives from the state hospital for criminally insane still at large.

Of the five, the three most dangerous were last believed racing through Iowa in a stolen car, one was being surrounded by a huge posse five miles north of St. Peter, and the last was thought held up only a short distance away, though he has not been sighted since the break.

The trio, led by the cunning Lawrence Devol, killer and bank robber of the defunct Barker-Karpis gang, sped into Iowa yesterday but may have cut over into Illinois. A woman at Wilmette, Ill., reported she gave a man resembling Devol 15 cents when he accosted her.

CURRENCY, FARM RELIEF PLANKS KEEP RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE IN CONFERENCE THROUGH NIGHT

Borah's Presence Causing Disturbance in Confabs; Group Shows Evident Signs of Anger and Fatigue

Steiwer's Keynote Address Places Him in Vice Presidential Limelight

BY UNITED PRESS
Political events held the spotlight across the nation today with emphasis centered on the Republican National convention in Cleveland and President Roosevelt in Arkansas.

The picture:
CLEVELAND—Former President Herbert Hoover arrives at convention scene; prepares for major address to party and nation at 8:15 p. m. (EST) tonight.

CLEVELAND—Permanent Chairman Bertrand H. Snell assumes charge of Republican gathering; presents second major address against New Deal shortly after noon (EST).

CLEVELAND—Hot platform fight engages Landon forces, eastern Republicans and Borah supporters; battle may prolong convention.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—President Roosevelt arrives for first speech of his southwestern tour, scheduled for 6 p. m. (CST).

WESTFIELD, Mass.—Former Gov. Joseph B. Ely reveals he will bolt Democrats if 1936 platform seeks to revive New Deal measures outlawed by Supreme court.

PUBLIC HALL, CLEVELAND, June 10.—(UP)—Partial compromise cracked the platform deadlock between the forces of Gov. Alf Landon of Kansas and Sen. William E. Borah today.

William Allen White, Kansas publisher and one of Landon's chief aids, today conferred with Borah for five minutes and capitulated to two of the Idaho senator's demands:

- 1—That he be permitted to place his party planks before the platform committee.
- 2—If his planks were rejected, Landonites agreed to fight for a chance for Borah to defend his position before the full convention.

CLEVELAND, June 10.—(UP)—The Landon board of strategy put a complete platform before the Republican resolutions committee today for east and west to stand on, and created an impasse that threatened to put the national convention at least a full day behind schedule.

Sworn to secrecy but showing definite signs of anger and fatigue (the sub-resolutions committee charged with putting a platform into writing, unexpectedly swarmed out of a hotel suite before daybreak, commenting unanimously that no progress had been made, and issuing conflicting reports as to the cause of the delay.

Currency, Farm Relief

Currency and farm relief stood out as the major planks on which divergent views were presented, but leaders conceded that failure to get down to grips with the issues meant that nothing could be presented to the convention until Thursday at the earliest. That would be a day behind the program, and veterans of past conventions said this one would last until Saturday at least.

The sub-committee controversy—with the lion-like figure of Sen. William E. Borah reportedly causing the greatest conflict—headlined a day of outstanding developments and followed the lambasting of the New Deal last night in a speech by Sen. Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, temporary convention chairman.

Steiwer's keynoter drew frenzied cheers from a crowd of upward of 18,000 that took every seat in Cleveland's vast public auditorium. In front of him was one hall, the main floor packed with delegates, the balconies with members of their families, their friends and guests, and behind was another, opened onto the first by the elimination of a removable wall, where were loyal Republicans and convention visitors.

His speech made him foremost of the candidates for the vice-presidency nomination—to share the Republican ticket probably with Gov. Landon.

Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas who appeared as certain of the nomination as any candidate can be 24 hours or more away from the time when the votes are to be counted. On today's program were:

1. The heralded arrival of Former President Herbert Hoover, with excitement mounting hourly in speculation as to the reception of the man who left the White House in 1932 and whose role at a Landon-dominated convention continued in doubt.
2. Another speech lambasting the New Deal, to be delivered by short, pink-cheeked Rep. Bertrand Snell of New York, minority leader of the house, before the convention today after Continued on Page Three

LANDON ENJOYS STEIWER'S TALK IN KANSAS HOME

TOPEKA, Kansas, June 10.—(UP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon said he thought Sen. Frederick Steiwer's keynote address at the Republican national convention was "a mighty fine speech" but today confirmed his comment to the weather and a visit with the dentist. Landon last night listened to Sen. Steiwer's address with his family and a few friends. "I listened with interest," Landon said. "I enjoyed it and thought that Senator Steiwer made a mighty fine speech."

G. O. P. EXPECTED TO NOMINATE LANDON AND STEIWER

PARTY'S POWER IS GOING WEST; KANSAN RULING

Walter Brown Out, Hilles and Reed on Way; Other Leaders Waning

PUBLIC HALL, Cleveland, June 10.—(UP)—The 1936 ticket taking form today in the minds of massed delegates to the Republican national convention is:

For president, Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas.

For vice-president, Sen. Frederick Steiwer of Oregon.

A Borah bolt appears likely, although an effort is being made to keep him in camp. Some Landon leaders, however, have reconciled themselves to getting along in the 1936 campaign without him unless he shows some spirit of compromise on platform issues.

The Landon-Steiwer ticket, or any other headed by the Kansas governor, definitely will shift party control to the west. The GOP is looking for farm belt leadership to regain the lost provinces of 1932.

Field is Small

Talk of Steiwer for vice president was modified today by the fact that his keynote speech last night fell short of the explosive, stampeding oration which might have been made and which some delegates expected. But the field of potential second place nominees is small.

Steiwer failed to roll his hearers in the aisles—wow them is the theatrical expression. But he held attention, brought his listeners along, and was going better at the end than at the beginning. And, furthermore, Steiwer would accept the vice presidential nomination.

Landon and John D. Hamilton, his red-headed campaign manager, wanted Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, but the senator curiously took himself out of the race.

Old guard Republicans are suddenly awake to the fact that party control has shifted west of the Mississippi to a degree unprecedented in the more than 75 years of G. O. P. history. No trans-Mississippi governor ever before has been nearer than just close to the presidential nomination and here today Landon has it in his palm with fingers twitching.

Missourian Named

With Landon's nomination, chairmanship of the Republican national convention will go to Hamilton, a Topeka, Kan., lawyer, now snowflown state member of the Republican national committee. Dominance of the west in party councils was further emphasized by election of Herman M. Langworthy, Kansas City, Mo., lawyer chairman of the resolutions committee which sat most of the night trying to complete the party platform.

Langworthy and Missouri got that hot spot only after a mountain state westerner, former Sen. John Thomas of Idaho, had refused to serve.

As the east is crowded to the rear row, or back stage positions of secret but only slightly diminished power as Sen. William E. Borah and others charge, there are casualties among the old guard in general.

Walter F. Brown, postmaster general in the Hoover administration, was ousted yesterday by Frank F. Taggart from his position as Republican national committeeman for Ohio.

Rebellion is reported in New York against the long domination of National Committeemen Charles D. Hilles. Sen. David A. Reed of Pennsylvania soon is to re-

Tall Tales

A GOOD many Circleville residents remember the series of trials that followed a rural murder several years ago. Orville Bumparker was one of the guards about the courthouse and the following story has just leaked out concerning his efficiency.

A young fellow was making drawings in the courtroom of the various persons having leading roles in the proceedings. He had sketched the judge, the prosecutor, the attorneys, witnesses and defendants in several of the cases. It seems that he had been using the front door of the courthouse where he became known to the guards.

One day he decided to take a short cut through the rear entrance, guarded by Bumparker. The guard halted him. "What's in that package you've got?" he asked. "Just an easel," replied the sketcher.

"Well, we don't allow any animals in the courthouse," snapped Walter.

TALL ONES

Do you know any tall stories? If you do please pass them on that someone else may enjoy a laugh.

BOWSHER HOLDS SCHOOL VERDICT

Action Against Stevens Ends; 50 Testify

COLUMBUS, June 10.—(UP)—After hearing more than 50 witnesses, E. L. Bowshe, state education director, today withheld decision on removal action against A. E. Stevens, superintendent of schools at Carlisle, O., accused of improper conduct.

Stevens, who denied the charges, will be given a second hearing, Bowshe said. C. H. Bohl, Warren county superintendent; Robert L. Rohe, field agent of the state department; and Vernon Reigel, head of a teachers' placement bureau here, also will attend the second hearing.

Five teachers of the Carlisle school and Bohl filed charges of immorality and improper conduct against Stevens included shortages in a school activities account and forging of a health certificate. Testimony that Stevens had made improper advances to them was offered by three teachers, Misses Dorothy Cook, Myra W. Shawhan and Alma M. Oberland.

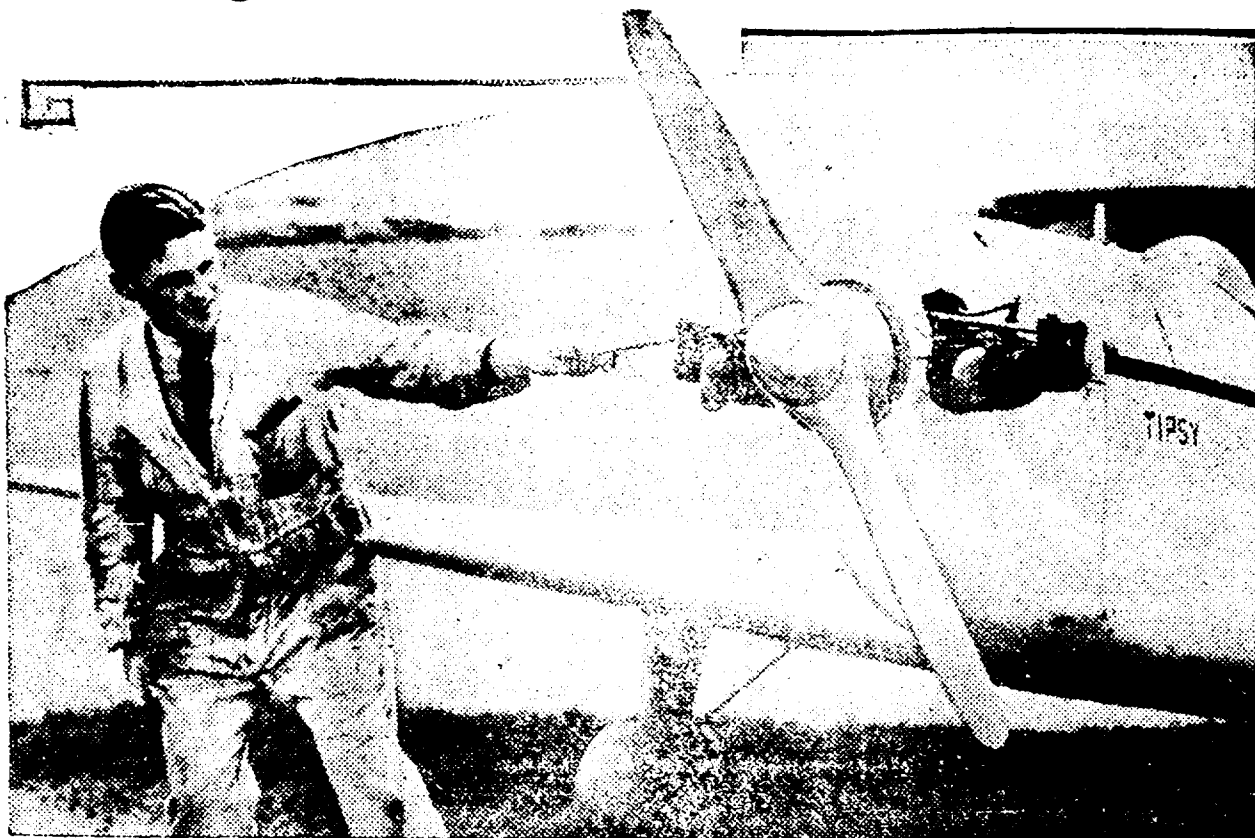

Two men teachers, Sam G. Vercoe and H. L. Schellenger, also testified at the hearing.

quish his national committee membership. Chairman Henry Prather Fletcher of the national committee will drop the gavel Friday or Saturday when the new, probably Landon controlled, committee meets and elects a successor.

This western rebellion and its success were forecast two years ago when the committee met in Chicago to name a successor to Chairman Everett Sanders, who resigned because of illness. Surviving Hooverites and the east ganged the west that time, but elected Fletcher only after a hot contest with a rebel faction urging that Hamilton be given party command.

Since both have been put in the pure food and drug law, we have got something not only to chew on, but to chew with.

England's Bid for the Flivver Plane Market

A MECHANIC is shown starting the engine of England's new light plane as it was put through tests at the Middlesex Airport. The ship is fitted with a two-cylinder engine, which drives it at a cruising speed of 70 miles an hour and at a cost estimated under one cent a mile. The plane, weighs 286 pounds and will cost about $1,200.

Steiwer Forced to Combat Science

PUBLIC HALL, CLEVELAND, June 10.—(UP)—Senator Frederick Steiwer emerged bedraggled but triumphant today from a tussle with a scientific Frankenstein, which nearly ruined one of the major addresses of the Republican National convention.

Picture the battle of the barrel-chested Oregonian against wheels which wouldn't turn, electric currents which wouldn't flow, and signals which wouldn't buzz, engulfing his historic keynote speech in a welter of mechanical tribulations.

The hour is 9:10 p. m. ten thousand Republicans whistle and clap as Steiwer tramps down the green-floored platform to issue the G. O. P.'s defiance of the New Deal. One dozen gigantic klieg lights spear his graying head with blue-white flame.

Loudspeaker's Mammoth

High above him hangs a muslin-covered battery of loudspeakers, big as a one-story house, behind him is a gigantic thermometer, filled with molten light. It is an applause meter, designed to register the enthusiasm of the crowd.

A thousand feet in front of him, barely visible through the smoky haze, is a 30-piece orchestra, which figures in the affray to come.

Steiwer wears a wrinkled blue suit. He waves both hands to the cheering Republicans. He starts to speak. His voice is gruff; almost a bark.

His address is amplified a hundred times and a hundred times again. It is so loud it sends the applause meter jiggling in a shower of electric fire. The engineers work over it silently, frantically, fearful that the audience is paying the gagged more attention than the speaker whose voice actuates it.

Speaker Perspires

As two enormous clocks on the wall tick away the minutes, the baking heat from the searchlights goes to work on Steiwer. His collar melts like an ice cream cone. Perspiration beads his face, drips from the top of his nose and lands, plop, on his manuscript.

More moisture trickles in rivulets down his cheeks. He shakes his head for emphasis as he talks gravely, earnestly. A faint spray showers down on the press box at his feet.

Steiwer teeters on his toes and grasps the dais as he shouts his condemnation of the Roosevelt administration. Cigarette smoke swirls around his head. The brilliant light filters through his bushy eye-brows and forces him to squint.

He reaches the high point of his address. The applause is riotous. The thermometer is fluctuating like a thing possessed. There is a faint click. The mighty amplifiers go as dead as so many 1920 radio sets and the senator's speech is left hanging in midair—in the middle of a sentence.

Stunned, he turns to the meek little engineer, sitting on a stool behind him. He wants the engineer to repair the damage.

"I'm trying," says the little fellow.

The bandmaster, spying something amiss in the distance, strikes up a tune, featured by a musical saw, which wails like a banshee.

After minutes which seem like hours to Steiwer, the technicians patch the amplifiers. The senator starts to resume his speech, but the band, aided by the horns overhead, is playing louder than it ever has before—and it won't stop!

Fletcher Assists

Chairman Henry P. Fletcher, clad in a linen suit which is patched neatly on the seat of the trousers, rushes to the rescue. He pushes the button which signals the band leader. He pushes and he pushes—and he pushes. Nothing happens. The band keeps on going compah-pah.

In desperation Fletcher tries to wig-wag the musicians to quit. He looks something like an army signal man; something like a deaf-mute. The band finally catches on. Again Steiwer resumes his address.

A minute more and the applause meter goes completely haywire. Everybody looks at it but Steiwer, who continues to talk. Hardly does this happen before the biggest of the spotlights starts winking, like a Christmas tree. This alternation of night and day at half second intervals nearly blinds him, but he talks on—only to be interrupted by the crash of a flashlight bulb, dropped by a careless photographer.

Eventually the experts get all the machinery to working again, but by then Steiwer has finished his speech. He receives the plaudits of the crowd, a weary, wilted man, the first Republican victim of science.

OHIOANS DIVIDE OVER PLATFORM

Some of Delegation for Minimum Wage Law

CLEVELAND, June 10.—(UP)—Divergent opinions on the major platform issues were offered today by Ohio delegates to the Republican national convention.

Some Ohio delegates favor a plank advocating a minimum wage constitutional amendment; some oppose such a plank. Others either have no definite opinions or are unwilling to express their views. The same differences of opinion exist in regard to the anti-monopoly.

On the question of farm relief, the delegation is unanimous that the party must offer a remedy for the ills of the agricultural interests, but there is no general agreement on what that remedy should be.

State Chairman Ed D. Schorr is opposed to a minimum wage agreement, favors a strong anti-monopoly plank, and wants to see a worthwhile farm relief plank in the platform.

"I don't think a constitutional amendment is needed," Schorr said. "I think it is entirely possible for constitutional minimum wage laws to be enacted in the states under the present constitution."

"I believe the Republican party ought to go to the limit in making monopolies and combinations in restraint of trade and in restraint of free competition, impossible."

BADOGGIO WINS TRIO OF POSTS NOW IL DUCE'S

Hero of War in Africa to Become Minister of War, Navy and Air

ROME, June 10.—(UP)—Premier Benito Mussolini intends to merge the ministries of war, navy and air under Marshal Pietro Badoglio, hero of the Ethiopian war, as his next move in a re-organization of the cabinet, it was understood today.

Mussolini himself now holds the portfolios. The expectation is that as soon as league penalties against Italy are removed and the country resumes its normal place in European politics, Mussolini will give up the posts.

Badoglio, it is understood, will be placed in supreme charge of the three ministries as minister of national defense, with under-secretaries to aid him.

Under-secretaries, who are themselves officers of the respective arms of the services, now administer the war, navy and air force offices for Mussolini.

In envisaging the merger of the departments under one supreme chieftain, Mussolini will follow the examples of France and Great Britain.

$929 LISTED FOR DAVEY EXPENSE IN BROADCASTS

COLUMBUS, June 10.—(UP)—An item of $929 for two of Governor Davey's 30 weekly radio addresses was the only expenditure listed by the Democratic State Executive committee in a campaign account filed with the secretary of state today.

Receipts of $1927.72, all from the Democratic state campaign committee, were listed.

The radio cost included $384 for May 4 and $545 for May 11, paid to the Associated Broadcasting Corp.

GOODYEAR MEN STRIKE AS LEADER IS BEATEN

AKRON, June 10.—(UP)—The three plants of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. here were closed today as employees engaged in a concerted "sit down" in protest of the beating of Sherman Dalrymple, United Rubber Workers International president in Gadsden, Ala., last week-end.

The "sit down" started at midnight. Company representatives met with union committees today in an effort to end the protest strike.

CURRENCY FARM RELIEF PLANKS

his election as permanent chairman. The Landon advisers, unable to contact Borah last night, expected to talk to him about mounting sentiment for a modified form of managed currency and the vigorous protests of several farm groups for a more liberal agricultural plank than had been suggested by the Kansas camp.

It was believed emissaries of Landon would talk to the Idahoan while the sub-committee of the resolutions group resumes sessions at 9 a. m. to get down to the real problems confronting them.

These are:
1. CURRENCY. The Landon agreement in principle with the eastern old guard reportedly was slipping toward a plank that would make concessions toward western demands for a commodity dollar.

2. FARM RELIEF. The issue again was with western farm groups seeking a more liberal plank than suggested by the Kansans.

Delegates Near 500
The Landon wagon continued to pick up straggling delegates to bring his estimated total to a little below 500—only a few short of victory—despite the fact that Borah and Frank Knox continued their seemingly losing battle for the nomination. The so-called "stop Landon" movement had faded to a trembling whisper.

FEEDS FORFEIT TO CITIES OILS; FENCE IS READY

Eshelman Crew Unable to Put Full Team in Field; Meeting is Friday

Unable to put a team on the field because of late working hours, the Eshelman Feeds forfeited a softball game to the Cities Service team Tuesday evening. Only four members of the Feeds outfit appeared on the playing field, the remainder continued to work.

A good game is on the schedule this evening with the Given Oils and the Eagles contesting. The fraternal order has been going great guns behind the excellent pitching of Eddie Callahan, while the Given Oils have been in and out, losing a lopsided game to the slugging Circleville Oils Monday evening.

If the Given Oils are in form the contest should be a hot one.

Definite action on the game forfeited to the Eshelman Feeds a week ago because the Given Oils refused to play after a decision when the managers met in the office of George Hammel, Pythian Castle. Managers were called for Tuesday evening but Carl Purcell, Feeds boss, was unable to appear because of work, so no action was taken.

Automobiles will be permitted to drive into the playing field to night and from now on. League managers and helpers constructed a temporary fence around the outfield protecting a garden. Extra expense was incurred by the league in construction of the fence thus it is hoped that persons benefitted will drop an extra nickel or dime into the hat when it is passed.

About This And That In Many Sports

Louis Demands More

Mr. Joe Louis is getting rather balky—The colored slugger has turned down a contract offering him 12½ per cent of the gate to meet Jim Braddock, the title holder—Louis' contention is correct in that he is the guy who will probably draw the cash customers through the gate for the title match, and not Mr. Braddock. Another reason for his refusing to sign is given by the AP reporter who says Louis' managers want only one fight this year because of income tax reasons.

Up to Schmeling

Maxie Schmeling might make it unnecessary for Louis to sign a contract for a Braddock fight, but that looks next to impossible—Schmeling's chance for victory against the big negro is nearly as slim as Halle Selassie's of having Mussolini hand him a deed for Rome—Schmeling and Louis meet in New York a week from tomorrow, June 18.

Marshall vs. Baba

Everett Marshall is due to be the next heavyweight champion of the grappling world, if Al Haft has anything to do about it—Marshall will meet Al Baba, present "champion," in Columbus June 29—The match was originally scheduled for Detroit but has been transferred—The contest will be for one fall with a 90 minute limit—Haft will pack them into the Acre for this one—Wonder who will be the referee?

Fishing Fee Cut

Fishermen visiting in Ohio may test their skill in local streams and lakes by paying only $1.10 for a 10-day permit instead of $3.25 formerly required—This was announced as a recent decision of the Conservation Council—This is the first temporary fishing license Ohio has ever had—It is effective immediately.

DUDLEY RETAINS HIS OPEN TITLE; MANERO HITS 301

SHAWNEE-ON-HUDSON, Pa., June 10.—(UP)—Ed Dudley of Philadelphia today retained his Shawnee open golf title by shooting four under par on the last 36 holes for a total of 288 to beat out U. S. Open Champion Tony Manero and a host of other nationally prominent golfers.

Manero, who won the national title by a brilliant comeback at Baltusrol last Saturday was unable to "get hot" yesterday and finished up with an aggregate of 301. Manero ended in a tie for 19th place.

EAGLES TO MEET FAST LANCASTER DAIRY NINE

The Eagles lodge softball team will play a doubleheader on the electric company field Sunday afternoon against the fast Lancaster Home Dairy team. The first game starts at 2 o'clock. Eddie Callahan and Pug Fowler will pitch for the Eagles.

ASSOCIATION CROWDS GREATER THAN IN 1935

COLUMBUS, June 10.—(UP)—Attendance in the American Association for the first third of the season was 38.2 per cent greater than for a corresponding period a year ago, President George M. Trautman announced here today.

EASTERN TEAMS IN A. A. DEFEAT WEST INVADERS

Indianapolis Takes Two Fast Tilts from Milwaukee Brewers

Western teams yesterday continued to fare none too well against eastern clubs of the American association. The league's leaders, Milwaukee, featured the day with two losses by narrow margins to the Indianapolis Indians.

The Brewers hit only 7 times in two games against the Indians. Indianapolis played hard baseball to take the games 2 to 0 and 3 to 2. Logan and Page carried the Indians pitching honors.

Louisville's pinch hitter, Ringhofer, rapped out a long fly in the tenth to bring in the winning run against Kansas City. Charley Moncrief, who took Vance's place on the mound for the Blues after a bad third inning, held the Colonels in check until the final inning. The score was: Louisville 4; Kansas City 3.

Meanwhile Toledo overcame a bad start against St. Paul's Saints and wound up on the winning side of a 7 to 5 score. Two relief pitchers were used to keep St. Paul batsmen from hitting while the Mud Hens rapped out 11 safeties.

Columbus and Minneapolis split a doubleheader, the Millers winning the first 6 to 3, and the Red Birds the second 3 to 1. Winsett hit his 16th homer of the season to bring in a man in the ninth inning of the second game, giving the Red Birds the margin.

LANDRUM, BOYS CATCHING FISH, ENJOYING TRIP

Coach Jack Landrum and his gang of boys have arrived safely in Hessel, Mich. and are having a good time, a wire from the coach reports. The crew arrived in Ithaca at 4 p. m. Monday and left for Hessel at 6 a. m. Tuesday, arriving about 3:30 p. m.

The telegram says one after another. Had a nice fish dinner this evening. Everyone in fine shape. Weather is fine. Reger's whiskers are down to his elbows. In remote sections a "dun" is still considered an insult by those who don't intend to pay.

TIGER WITH CLAWS By Jack Sords

HOGSETT HELPS HORNSBY DRIVE FROM 'CELLAR'

NEW YORK, June 10.—(UP)—Rogers Hornsby told the boys back in St. Louis that when brought his Browns home they would not be dragging along at the tail end of the American League procession, and today it appeared as if he knew what he was talking about.

The Browns began their current road trip five games behind the seventh place Philadelphia Athletics, but today they are only a game behind them and are playing a good brand of baseball for the first time this year. They have won four out of their last six games and 11 out of their last 22.

Part of the success of the Hornsbymen is due to the fine pitching of Elton Hogsett. The big Indian was a relief hurler for Detroit, but Hornsby's pitchers have to work plenty and Hogsett has proved his worth by winning four out of five games since joining up with St. Louis.

He turned in his third win of the road trip yesterday, limiting the heavy hitting New York Yankees, leaders of the American league, to five scattered hits. His chief triumph, however, was in besting Vernon (Lefty) Gomez. He was out there on the mound still hurling 'em in there after the Browns shelled Lefty from the mound to take a 5 to 3 decision.

LOUIS DEMANDS MORE MONEY TO MEET BRADDOCK

LAKEWOOD, N. J., June 10.—(UP)—Mike Jacobs was stumped today for the first time since he stopped speculating in tickets and started fight-promoting. His chief money-maker, Joe Louis, has refused to sign a contract for a title bout with Heavyweight Champion Jimmy Braddock in September.

Louis' co-managers gave a positive "no" to Jacobs here yesterday when he offered the Brown Bomber 12½ per cent of the gate receipts, the regular share for the challenger in a championship bout. Braddock would get the champion's usual 37½ per cent.

"We feel Joe is just as good a drawing card as Braddock," said Manager No. 1, John Roxborough of Detroit. "His recent bouts with Baer, Carnera, Uzudun and Levinsky prove it."

"It would be unfair to Joe to have to begin training all over again when he gets through with Schmeling," added Manager No. 2, Julian Black of Chicago. "Beside Joe would be fighting for mere glory since the government would get most of his share in income taxes. We want 20 per cent."

Davis is 53 years old and a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh.

THEATRES

AT THE CLIFTONA

Peter B. Kyne's dramatic novel of the desert, "The Three Godfathers," with its amazing tale of sacrifice and heroism on the part of three Western bandits, is the attraction now showing at the Cliftona theatre. Lavishly staged by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and with much of its action actually filmed in the heart of the Mojave Desert, it brings Chester Morris to the screen in one of his most surprising "bad men" roles, teamed with Lewis Stone and Walter Brennan.

One of the greatest scenes in the picture is the one in which Morris, a former lover, deliberately kills the girl's love with an in-

AT THE GRAND

The rapid flawless articulation of Edward Everett Horton presents a definite problem for all other actors appearing in a scene with him. Evidence of his breezy smooth flowing speech is found in the Universal comedy, "Nobody's Fool," which opens at the Grand theatre on Friday.

In delivering dialogue, Horton speaks faster than most people realize, for he does it without apparent effort. While all the words are distinct, they tumble out in a torrent. Since this speedy conversation is a natural habit with Horton, he finds it easy to maintain the quick tempo in his lines. But the other actors have to be alert every moment to pick up their cues when Horton is talking. This rapidly gives faster pace to the comedy sequences.

Remember When?

A wolf visited the Oakland district killing sheep, pigs, geese and chickens on a number of farms.

In February, 1914 a large gray wolf appeared in the Oakland district and raided a number of farms. Some farmers, when unarmed, reported they were within 15 feet of the animal. Fifty traps were set for the wolf and a number of hunts were conducted. The animal disappeared as mysteriously as it appeared.

Recently an article was carried in this column concerning the historic milestone that stood at the corner of Court and Main-sts. Several historians were asked about the stone but reported they did not know where it was placed after being removed in 1911.

The stone is being used as a guard to protect the corner of a garage in the alley extending east from The Herald office. It still contains the inscription, Cincinnati, 91 miles.

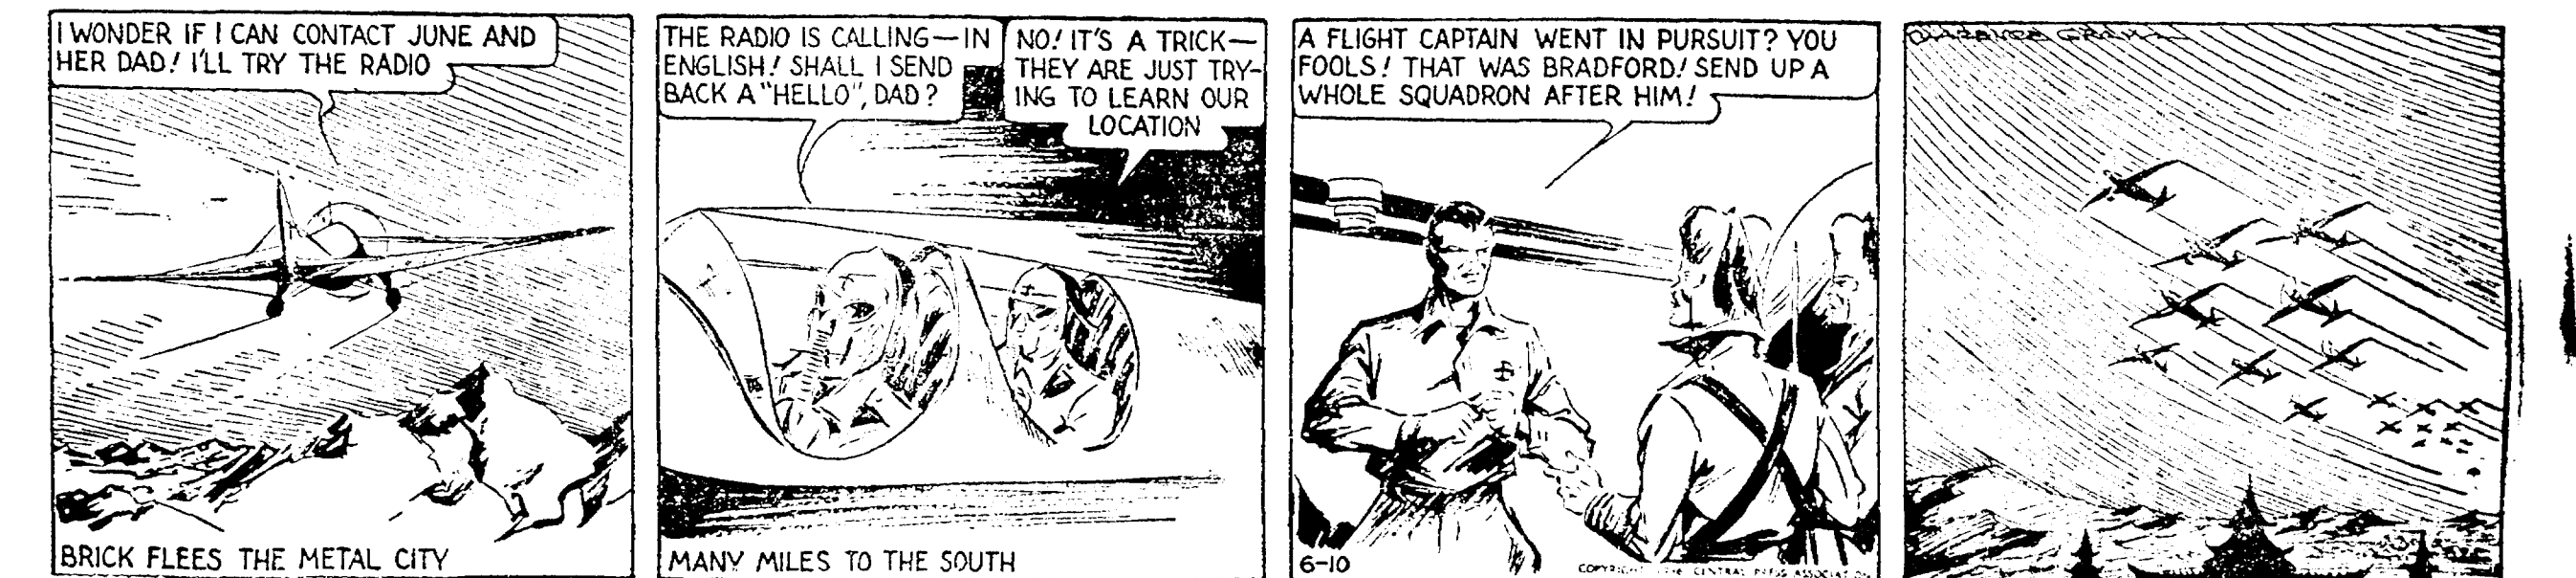

It was placed in Circleville during the Civil war by the builders of the Cincinnati turnpike and often mounted by residents to read war news.

MAYOR TO ENFORCE ORDINANCE BANNING FIREWORKS

GRAHAM READS LAW OUTLAWING ALL CITY SALES

Many Ohio Municipalities Act to Prevent Accidents from Explosives

"There's the law and we expect to comply with it," Mayor W. J. Graham said Wednesday when he issued a warning to dealers in fireworks and persons who delight in shooting the largest firecrackers they can obtain on the Fourth of July.

Cincinnati's ordinance dealing with fireworks follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell or to expose for or offer for sale within the city limits, any cannon, firing anvil, fire cracker, torpedo, squib, rocket, roman candle, toy pistol, or any other combustible fireworks, or tool or implement for the using or firing of any combustible fireworks. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding $50.

"It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to fire, explode or discharge any anvil, firecracker, torpedo, rocket, roman candle, or any fireworks of explosive material or substance of any kind or description within the limits of city."

In previous years Cincinnati has had a number of accidents from fireworks and from all indications the mayor expects to enforce every regulation available on them. Many Ohio cities have placed bans on fireworks this year.

ORANGE BLOSSOM PIE

Orange Pastry

One and one-half cups pastry flour

One tablespoon sugar

One-half teaspoon salt

Grated rind of one-half an orange

One-half cup shortening

Five tablespoons orange juice

Orange Custard

Two cups milk

One-half cup minute tapioca

One-half cup sugar

One-eighth teaspoon salt

Grated rind of one-half orange

Two eggs, separated

One-half cup shredded cocoanut

Sift all dry ingredients, add orange rind. Cut in coarsely the shortening, add orange juice. The five tablespoons should blend ingredients together. Roll out thin, cover inverted pie plate, prick bottom and sides. Bake in a quick oven for 15 minutes. Fill pie shell with orange custard made as follows:

Heat milk in double boiler, mix tapioca, sugar and salt. Stir in milk and cook until mixture begins to thicken. Add orange rind, cook 15 minutes and stir to prevent lumping. Add beaten egg yolks and cook one minute longer. Cool, then fold in stiffly beaten egg whites and pour into pastry shell. Sprinkle the top with cocoanut, brown lightly in oven. Chill thoroughly before serving.
